

Bookabee Tours Australia Aboriginal Cultural Experience Day Tour in Adelaide

Join your Aboriginal Tour Guide on a trip around Adelaide for an enjoyable and informative tour. Learn about the local Adelaide area and the social history of early Aboriginal life. Explore cultural environments, taste native bushfoods, learn about Australian animals and have hands on experiences.

Adelaide Botanic Gardens Bush Food Trail (9:30-11:30am)

Start the day with a leisurely stroll around the Botanic Gardens to learn about Aboriginal bush foods and plant uses. Find out about:

- traditional duck hunting techniques;
- Various other food gathering practices;
- Where to find bush medicines.

To conclude enjoy the great tastes of the Australian outback and try some native bush food products for morning tea within the beautiful surrounds of the Botanic Gardens.

Tandanya National Aboriginal Cultural Institute (11:45- 1:00pm)

Then a short walk to Tandanya for

- A walk through the Aboriginal art exhibition gallery;
- A Didgeridoo / cultural demonstration (not avail. Mondays);
- Visit the retail shop with a large range of Aboriginal artefacts, artwork, books and gifts.
- Experience the history of one of the world's oldest and most continuous living cultures in an exciting, contemporary context.

Enjoy Lunch in Adelaide's East End (1:15- 2:15pm)

Rundle Street East is Adelaide's Cosmopolitan centre and a part of the historic East End of Adelaide. It's full of cafes, hotels, restaurants and small interesting shops.

The East End is situated amongst a number of Adelaide's popular attractions, including the Botanical Gardens, Wine Centre, Rymill Park, Rundle Mall, and the many cultural highlights and heritage buildings along North Terrace.

Cost: $210.00 AUD per person

Cost Includes: Morning Tea, Lunch, and Entry Fees.

Not included in cost: Drinks with Lunch

All tours meet 10 minutes prior to departure at the designated departure point.

Ph: 8285 5033 Mobile: 0408 209 593

Email: info@banksia-adventures.com.au

Banksia Adventures - Lic # TAA:159294

www.bookabee.com.au

South Australian Museum - Aboriginal Cultures Gallery (2:30- 4:30pm)

Take a short walk to see the Aboriginal Cultures Gallery at the South Australian Museum:

- The Australian Aboriginal Cultures Gallery showcases the largest collection of Australian Aboriginal artefacts and archival material in the world.
- Over 3,000 items on display in an accessible, interactive setting,
- Experience the history of one of the world's oldest and most continuous living cultures in an exciting, contemporary context.